About Arrow Enterprise Computing Solution

Arrow ECS GmbH is a value-added distributor selling enterprise computing solutions and services in the product areas of security, server, storage, cloud and virtualization. We support partners in the realization of tailor-made solutions - from pre-sales to the conception and planning of a project to installation and support services. The solution-oriented product areas are combined with services in the areas of technology, financing, marketing and sales. Professional, in some cases exclusive, training and education round out the offering. With almost 20 years of experience and expertise in the IT environment, with our high quality and service standards and a clear focus on our customers, we offer specialist retail partners a successful collaboration with a strong, highly motivated team.
